

Our Favorite Excuses for Not Posting a Score

Believe it or not, these are actual excuses we've heard over the years for players not posting scores. Amazingly, NONE of these excuses are legitimate reasons to avoid posting! Please send us any silly excuse you hear so we can add it to the list.

What's your Favorite Excuse?

- I was playing with my wife/husband/my kids/my grandkids
- I'm just a beginner/I was playing with a beginner
- I was too embarrassed and just wanted to go home
- I didn't know the Course/Slope Rating
- I was on vacation
- I was in another state and they're not on GHIN
- I wasn't playing my Home Course
- The clubhouse was closed
- I didn't play all 9 (or 18) holes
- I finished in the dark
- The weather was really bad
- I was playing alone
- My score was too low/too high
- There was a temporary tee/temporary green on the course
- We were allowed mulligans in the tournament
- I forgot
- I forgot my GHIN card and don't know my number
- I was playing in a match and picked up twice/ I was playing in a match and I lost
- I was playing in a tournament and was disqualified
- I lost my scorecard
- I've got twenty scores posted - I thought I could stop there
- I was playing in a best-ball
- I played a different set of tees
- I was using new clubs
- I was just practicing; I practice a lot
- I don't play in tournaments anyway
- I was drinking beer while I was playing
- I was just playing for fun
- I haven't played in a long time
- I was in a hurry
- I was playing Winter Rules in July
- The course was a cow pasture
- My ball went in the water and a fish ate it
- I don't want my handicap to go down/up
- I didn't keep score/I don't have to post every score do I?
- Our group doesn't start playing for another week/stopped playing last week
- I don't understand handicapping; I just signed up because we have great card games after we play
- "So and so" doesn't post; why should I?

POST YOUR SCORES! (So You Don't Have To Use One of These Silly Excuses)